

Centennial Fill-in-the-blank

In 1920 J.R.McWane said, "The glory of business is not to make money out of it alone, but to make progress to develop men and women and methods and product to improve the _____."

J.R.'s son, _____ McWane, took over the family business in 1933 and became President of McWane.

_____ began making cast iron soil pipe to meet the demands of the housing boom of the late 1940s, after World War II. This McWane company was the largest manufacturer of cast iron soil pipe and fittings in the western United States at the time.

In 1947, McWane received licenses to install the deLavaud centrifugal metal casting mold process that eliminated pipe cores and cast pipe using a _____ method.

Amerex, an industry leader in making fire extinguishers, was founded in 1971 in the city of _____.

In the 1970s, McWane switched from making cast iron pipe to making Ductile iron pipe. Did you know, _____ is added to the molten iron to increase the strength and durability of Ductile iron pipe?

Currently serving as Chairman of the board Phillip McWane, a fourth-generation McWane, began his tenure with the company in _____.

During the _____ of 1993, Manchester Tank flew team members back and forth across the Mississippi River from Illinois to Missouri for work each day. This natural disaster closed all tri-state area bridges.

McWane has seven VPP sites. VPP stands for _____.

Resistant to woodpeckers, insects, freezing weather and rot, McWane _____ are also engineered to withstand the largest natural disaster threats, such as hurricanes, fires and earthquakes.

In 2010, McWane held the first _____, an annual competition intended to reduce injuries, improve workplace efficiency and transform processes.

P2C or the _____ began in 2011 and has served as the hallmark of efforts toward sustainability and environmental stewardship.

In 2019, _____ was awarded its first patents for design elements of the PDR8000®.

The McWane Valve and Hydrant Group teamed up with Nighthawk to develop the first smart hydrant in 2017. This new product is called _____.

M&H Valve celebrated the 90th anniversary of their first _____ in 2019.

GENERATIONS
OF EXCELLENCE